Kansas City Vascular Symposium 2020

Thursday, April 16, 2020 to Friday, April 17, 2020
The University of Kansas Health System
Dec. 26 to Apr. 13
Register

Over a period of two days, the symposium will offer informative presentations on diagnosis and treatment guidelines in the care and management of vascular disease. The conference is designed to present a variety of common and interesting vascular topics including carotid and aneurysmal diseases, venous diseases and varicose veins, deep vein thrombosis, lower extremity arterial diseases, non-healing leg wounds and neurovascular disease.

Schedule:
Thursday, April 16, 2020, Reception: 6:00 PM | Dinner and Presentation (1 CE): 7:00 PM | Stadium Tours to follow

Friday, April 17, 2020 Symposium: 7:00 AM - 4:00 PM

Course Directors:
Kamal Gupta, MD, FACC, FSCAI
Professor of Cardiovascular Medicine, Medical Director of Vascular Medicine
Interventional Cardiology Training Program Director, Vice-Chair for Academics and Research, Department of Cardiovascular Medicine, The University of Kansas Health System, Kansas City, KS

Axel Thors, DO, FACS, RPVI
Assistant Professor of Vascular Surgery, The University of Kansas Health System, Kansas City, KS

Meeting City and State: Kansas City, Missouri
Meeting Location: Arrowhead Stadium, 1 Arrowhead Dr, Kansas City MO 64129